Dear Mr. Bush:

On behalf of the students, faculty, and staff of the U.S. Army Institute for Military Assistance, I would like to express our appreciation for the Central Intelligence Agency's participation in our recent Washington Interdepartmental Agency Field Trip. STATINTL

STATINTL

The series of presentations by [redacted]

[redacted] uniformly positive response from the participating foreign area officers. The sense of genuine interest in our program conveyed by these gentlemen was reinforced by your own appearance before the group. Your candor and willingness to respond forthrightly to a wide range of oftentimes probing questions left an indelible and favorable impression on the group. The professionalism that characterized the Central Intelligence Agency program is a tribute not only to the principal speakers but also to Mrs. [redacted] who, I am STATINTL told by my staff, coordinated the entire effort from behind the scenes.

I wish to reemphasize our gratitude for your support of the educational mission of the Institute. The personal participation of a dedicated public servant of your background and experience virtually guaranteed the success of the field trip.

Respectfully,

ROBERT C. KINGSTON
Major General, USA
Commandant

The Honorable George Bush
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505
